We are hoping to expand our after school group classes to include the possibility of drama, theatresports, public speaking, musical theatre, singing, dance or other performance classes. Whatever is your speciality, the successful applicant(s) will;

- Have proven experience to provide a range of motivating and dynamic classes to cater for students of various ages, needs and levels of ability is essential,
- Deliver a program that will motivate and engage young learners as an after school enrichment learning opportunity, providing children with the opportunity to explore and discover emerging interests and talents,
- Teach creative programs with a focus on skill development, building confidence and creating a fun, friendly and safe learning environment.

Applications must include;

- Introductory cover letter;
- Full CV with teaching qualifications and an outline of your professional strengths, passions and capabilities;
- An overview of your proposed program (PDF, video or other electronic format)
- The names of three confidential referees including your 2 most recent employers;
- International applicants must include visa status indicating your eligibility to work in Australia; and
- Current proof of working with children clearance documentation.

The successful applicant(s) will be committed to the full life and mission of the School and will demonstrate an affinity with the Christian ethos of the School. Short listed applicants who are invited for an interview will be required to make a more detailed presentation which provides an overview of the details and methodology of your proposed program.
