

Chief Executive Officer

- Provide vision, strategy and leadership
- Strengthen the organisation's governance model
- Deliver the Christian mission through education
- Enable performance and growth

The organisation and position

Anglican Schools Corporation (the Corporation) seeks an outstanding CEO to bring vision and leadership to the organisation. The Corporation's purpose is to grow a community of interdependent Anglican schools which communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ through word and deed. It currently operates through some 2,400 employees and serves more than 15,000 students and families in 16 schools across NSW.

The CEO leads the organisation that enables the growth and performance of its existing schools, and the development of new schools. While it is the principal who has responsibility for the day to day operations of each school, the Corporation's Board and CEO work closely with all principals to ensure that schools perform well, and to provide strong governance and oversight.

Occupying a key leadership role in the Christian education sector, the CEO will lead the organisation with vision and a clear strategy. A critical objective will be to develop and strengthen the governance model of the Corporation to assist the schools to operate interdependently, delivering greater efficiency, more interdependence and facilitating their alignment with the Corporation's Christian mission.

The CEO will provide leadership through influence, engagement and communication across a range of stakeholders. The CEO will lead a team that provides the enabling functions to the schools, including human resources management, information technology, risk, finance, and education and mission.

The ideal candidate

The ideal candidate will be a proven executive with a track record of leadership and "followship" in organisations of comparable scale, with a complex stakeholder environment. A background in education is desirable, but not essential. The right candidate must have a passion for the education of young minds, be a practising Christian and a current communicant of a Christian church.
