

Educational Development Co-ordinator

The Anglican Schools Corporation – Hurstville, NSW

Are you a passionate educator, with a love of Christ, who enjoys helping others to flourish?

Work with the Director of Education and Mission and our schools to progress key strategic educational priorities.

- Promote the engagement of data to drive student outcomes across the schools
- Drive ASC professional learning and development programs
- Host 'teach meets'/ teacher clusters and curriculum groups to foster shared practice
- Facilitate ASC network groups to build interdependence

The Role

We are seeking a highly accomplished educational leader who is committed to promoting the mission and vision of the Anglican Schools Corporation who can support key strategic priorities within the Education and Mission portfolio. The role will work closely with the Director of Education and Mission to facilitate professional learning programs and collaborative resource development across the schools. This multi-faceted role will suit an outstanding educational leader who is comfortable and confident engaging with Principals and their teams, working with data, and in leading professional learning and development.

Position Title:
Location:	Hurstville, NSW (Includes flexible working arrangements with regular school visits)
Load:	1.0 FTE
Responsible to:	Director of Education and Mission (DEM)
Organisation:	The Anglican Schools Corporation is established by the Anglican Church Diocese of Sydney to provide an affordable, quality Christian education. The Corporation owns and operates 18 schools across 19 campuses across the greater Sydney area, the South Coast and Central West of NSW, catering for the academic, spiritual and pastoral needs of over 18,000 students. The Anglican Schools Corporation (ASC) Group Office is responsible for the delivery of financial, IT, HR and capital works management services to the Corporation's 18 schools and governing bodies. The Director of Education and Mission reports to the CEO. http://www.tasc.nsw.edu.au
Relationships:	Director of Education and Mission, ASC Executive, Principals and school personnel
Context:	In 2022, the Anglican Schools Corporation established renewed strategic intentions for the coming years. Projects linked to these initiatives within the Education and Mission portfolio include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Supporting the use of data and teaching and learning frameworks to drive quality education and improved outcomes for all students• Supporting schools in their professional development and training of leaders and teachers• Establishing pathways for Christian teachers entering the profession that will support spiritual growth, career and leadership progression The Educational Development Co-ordinator will work collaboratively with the Education and Mission team to progress these strategic objectives.

Purpose:	The Educational Development Co-ordinator will facilitate professional learning and development opportunities for ASC school staff, support networks and curriculum groups, drive shared opportunities and shared resourcing, helping the ASC to operate efficiently and interdependently, supporting teachers across the Corporation in spiritual growth, career development and leadership progression.
Responsibilities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facilitate professional learning opportunities and training programs for staff across schools • Lead ASC curriculum groups and the sharing of programs and resources • Support schools in the engagement of data to drive student outcomes • Increase engagement with educational reporting • Host teacher clusters/ teach meets to foster collaboration and shared learning • Support the development of leaders across the ASC • Co-ordinate professional learning networks connections and meetings • Contribute to the Education and Mission portfolio • Support the ASC mission to provide quality, affordable Christian education • Promote the objectives of the Corporation
Requirements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practising Christian, active in local church • Accomplished educator with experience in Anglican schools • Commitment to research informed practice • Ability to engage with data and set strategy • A love of people and a strong EQ • The gift of hospitality • Excellent communication skills • Strategy, warmth and intellect
Technical skills:	Proficiency in Edumate, Edval, Canvas, Microsoft Suite, Adobe Acrobat
Published:	By the Director of Education and Mission – November 2024
Department:	Group Office – Education and Mission

The Application

For a confidential conversation about the role, please contact Merryn Clarksmith 0418 561 312.

Only applications submitted via email will be acknowledged.

Applications due by 5:00pm on Thursday 12th December 2024.

To apply for this role, please email your CV, a cover letter outlining your interest and suitability and the names of three referees to eatodem@tasc.nsw.edu.au - at least one referee should be your current minister or someone from your church who can attest to your Christian faith and practice.